

WINTER BASKETBALL PROGRAM

The “Winter Basketball Program” is designed to provide quality instruction for boys and girls from Essex Fells and Roseland. The program emphasizes teaching fundamentals and player development and improvement. The class structure will stress fundamentals, proper technique, practice drills, game situations and court awareness as well as playing an organized scrimmage. All teaching is done in a positive and enthusiastic manner. Players of all skill levels are welcome. Director Bill Maranz has over 13 years of college coaching experience as well as five years at the professional level in the United States Basketball League (USBL).
