

NEW JERSEY BASKETBALL ACADEMY

STAFF

BILL MARANZ

President of the New Jersey Basketball Academy and Camp Director of the Fun and Fundamentals Basketball Camps. Simply, the Academy was established to provide quality basketball instruction at an affordable cost. For thirteen years, Bill has coached at the collegiate level at Saint Peter's College, Adelphi University and Babson College. Bill has also coached five seasons at the professional level in the United States Basketball League (USBL) with the New Haven Skyhawks and Long Island Surf. In addition to directing numerous camps, Bill has also created the "Future Hoops" program introducing basketball to boys and girls ages three to fifteen.

TIM CAPSTRAW

Coach Capstraw has an extensive basketball background as a player, head coach, administrator and television broadcaster. Presently, the radio analyst for the New Jersey Nets, Tim is also an analyst for NBA TV and NCAA TV. Prior to joining the media, Tim was a Division I head coach at Wagner College for ten years. With over twenty years of experience as a basketball camp director, Tim has been working with youth programs developing the skills of boys and girls throughout the country.

Additional camp staff will include local college coaches and players as well as high school coaches.
